REGULAR HIRERS

CONDITIONS OF HIRE - NAPIER HALL

Napier Hall shall be opened to all members of the community regardless of race, gender, sexual orientation, age disability, religious or political beliefs or marital status.

Hall hirers must be 18 years or above to make a booking.

The hall will be made available for the hire period only. Users should ensure that when bookings are made setting up and cleaning times on completion are included in the period booked. The caretaker will unlock the hall at the start of your hire and return to lock up at the finish of your hire.

The premises must be vacated in the same condition as that in which they were hired, basic cleaning equipment is provided. There will be penalties for failure to observe this condition. The hirer is responsible for all breakages and damage.

The maximum capacity of the hall must not be exceeded:

Main Hall

- 100 people
- 90 people if seated

Committee Room

- 40 people
- 30 people if seated

The premises are not licensed for the sale of alcohol and it is illegal to do so. Alcohol must not be consumed on the premises by any person under the age of 18. Smoking is not allowed in any part of the premises.

Bouncy Castles or similar must not be installed inside or outside the hall. No exhibition, demonstration or performance of hypnotism, mesmerism or any similar act may be given. No entertainment involving special effects (e.g. pyrotechnics, real flames, smoke machines, firearms, strobe lighting, foam parties, lasers etc.) or any sporting event involving special risks or danger may take place. Small birthday cake candles will be permitted. It is illegal to tamper with any items of equipment in the hall, e.g. smoke alarms.

No items to be stored on the premises without the agreement of the Council. The storage of cash, electrical goods and perishable items is not permitted. The Parish Council accepts no responsibility for private property lost or damaged by whatever cause.

Hirers using their own electrical equipment within the hall must ensure the safety of their items as it remains the hirers responsibility – Horndean Parish Council will not inspect or test any such equipment.

SAFETY INFORMATION AND EMERGENCY PROCEDURES – NAPIER HALL

Exits must be kept clear and accessible at all times

Accident Reporting

Any injury sustained on the premises must be recorded in the Accident Book and reported to the Council Office by the next working day. The Accident Book is kept in the kitchen with the first aid box. If necessary please complete sections 1 -3, detach the form and either hand to the caretaker or deliver to the Council Office. Please return the Accident Book to where you found it.

IN THE EVENT OF A FIRE OR IF THE ALARM SOUNDS

- Raise the alarm and call the Fire Service by dialling 999, giving the location as Napier Hall, Horndean, PO8 9NL (next to the Colonial Bar, formally the Good Intent)
- Leave the building by the nearest available exit
- Do not visit the cloakroom or any other parts of the building and do not stop to collect personal belongings
- Do not run
- Assemble in the car park
- When the Fire Service arrive, let them know where the fire is and what seems to be burning
- Do not re-enter the building until advised to do so by the Fire Service

Hirers are advised to keep a record of all people present in the building so that in the event of an emergency it will be possible to establish that the building has been completely evacuated.

Fire Alarms are tested on a regular basis. If this takes place when you are using the building you will be informed immediately prior to the test. You need not take any action and you will be informed when the test has been completed.

EMERGENCY PLAN FOR TEMPORARY RESPONSIBLE PERSONS

As the responsible person for the event/ function you have legal duties with regard to the safety of those persons assisting or attending the event.

Before the event or function you should be aware of:

- What fire protection systems are present
- How a fire will be detected
- How people will be warned if there is a fire
- What staff should do if they discover a fire
- How the evacuation of the premises should be carried out
- Where people should assemble after they have left the premises and procedures for checking whether the premises have been evacuated
- Identification of key escape routes and exits, how people can gain access to them and escape to a place of safety
- Specific arrangements, if necessary, for high risk areas
- How the fire and rescue service and any other necessary services will be called
- Procedures for meeting the fire and rescue service on their arrival and notifying them of any special risk, e.g. the location of highly flammable materials
- What instruction employees or helpers need and the arrangements for ensuring that this training is given
- Limitation on numbers of people
- Exit doors which are required to be in the open position are secure
- Checking that all escape routes are clear of obstruction and combustibles

Before the event or function you should decide:

- The arrangements for fighting fire
- The arrangements for means of escape for disabled persons
- The duties and identity of staff who have specific responsibilities if there is a fire
- The arrangements for the safe evacuation of people identified as being especially at risk, such as contractors, those with disabilities, children, members of the public and visitors
- How will you proceed if life safety systems are out of order, e.g. fire-detection and alarm systems, sprinklers or smoke control systems
- Who will be responsible for calling the fire and rescue service and any other necessary service
- Who will meet the fire and rescue service on their arrival and notify them of any special risk, e.g. the location of highly flammable materials
- The plans to deal with people once they have left the premises, especially children.

At the start of the event or function you should notify all those present about:

- The smoking policy
- The emergency warning signal
- Who is supervising and how to identify them
- Location of exits and escape routes
- Taking only valuables immediately to hand but not to go to collect other belongings
- the location of muster points
- what will happen after that (e.g. re-entry to the building)

During the event or function you should ensure that;

- Escape routes and exits do not become blocked
- The smoking policy is adhered to
- No naked flames are permitted (unless authorised e.g. candles)
- Where naked flames are present that combustible materials are kept clear
- Rooms do not become overcrowded
- Noise levels cannot drown out the fire alarm
- If necessary, the number of persons in our premises is limited or controlled

The above list is for example only and will need to be specific to any particular venue or premises.
